Youth Chorale

The Carmel Bach Festival is pleased to announce a new Youth Chorale beginning with the July 2020 Festival, and continuing into the academic year.

Singers in grades 6-12 will audition in May 2020 for the initial Youth Chorale for the 2020 Festival, and audition again next September, once the group becomes a year-round ensemble. Academic-year rehearsals will begin in October. The ensemble will evolve to perform a holiday program, a spring program, and a concert during the Carmel Bach Festival in July.

The Youth Chorale will grow to serve as a musical ambassador group promoting the Festival throughout the year. The groups will study and prepare a wide range of classical and popular repertoire from the Baroque to contemporary works.

The group will be directed by Dr. David A. Dehner, director of Vocal Arts at Monte Vista Christian School in Watsonville. Dehner has more than 30 years of experience as a music educator and is a four-time Grammy Music Educator honoree. He has B.A. in Music, Lee University, a M.A. in Vocal Performance and Choral Conducting, Middle Tennessee State University, a D.M.A. in Voice, Musicology and Music Theory from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary School of Church Music, and post-graduate studies at University of Alabama and Westminster Choir College at Oxford University.

The initial performance of the Youth Chorale takes place Thursday, July 30, 2:30 at Carmel's Church of the Wayfarer.
